Dear Colleagues:

Today Constellation Brands announced a significant business opportunity. We have submitted an offer to acquire the outstanding shares of The Robert Mondavi Corporation. Details of the proposal are in the attached media release.

Mondavi is one of the top brand names in the wine business. They are a leader in the California wine industry and largely responsible for creating Napa Valley as a world-renowned wine producing region. Mondavi has a long, rich history and we are committed to honoring and protecting the heritage and brand.

The proposed transaction with Mondavi is the latest step in our business strategy of enhancing our profitable growth by increasing both our breadth and our scale. This transaction will complement Constellation's portfolio with an additional platform for luxury wine, stronger routes-to-market and additional critical mass. It also enhances our position as the world's largest wine company by increasing our presence in the premium through luxury categories.

Under our leadership, we have confidence that the Mondavi name will continue to be associated with the highest in quality and the Mondavi brand will remain an industry leader.

Throughout this process, it will be important as a company that we speak with one voice. Please refer all external and internal inquiries on this transaction to our corporate communications department so that Philippa Dworkin and her team can respond with appropriate information.

This is a unique opportunity for Constellation and our partners. We believe the proposed transaction with Mondavi will make Constellation even more successful, enhance its worldwide recognition and bolster our effort to build significant value for our shareholders.

Regards,

/s/ Richard Sands

Chairman & Chief Executive Officer
