Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On April 5, 2013, Constellation Brands, Inc. (“Constellation”) issued a statement, a copy of which is furnished herewith as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference, regarding discussions with the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice.

References to Constellation’s website in the release do not incorporate by reference the information on such website into this Current Report on Form 8-K and Constellation disclaims any such incorporation by reference. The information in the news release attached as Exhibit 99.1 is incorporated by reference into this Item 7.01 in satisfaction of the public disclosure requirements of Regulation FD. This information is “furnished” and not “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and is not otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section. It may be incorporated by reference in another filing under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or the Securities Act of 1933 only if and to the extent such subsequent filing specifically references the information incorporated by reference herein.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On April 5, 2013, the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice (“DOJ”), Constellation Brands, Inc. (the “Company”) and Crown Imports LLC (“Crown”), Anheuser-Busch InBev (“ABI”) and Grupo Modelo S.A.B. de C.V. (“Grupo Modelo”), made a joint motion to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia for a limited extension of the stay of the DOJ’s action against ABI and Modelo until April 23, 2013, on the understanding that the parties have reached an agreement in principle on a proposed resolution. The parties requested the stay to finalize the details of a proposed consent judgment and related papers required by the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act. Under the proposed terms of the agreement in principle between the parties, in addition to other terms (i) Constellation will be joined as a party to the action for the purposes of settlement and for the entry of a Final Judgment, (ii) Constellation is expected to be obligated to build-out and expand the Piedras Negras Brewery to a nominal capacity of at least 20 million hectoliters of packaged beer annually by December 31, 2016, and to use its best efforts to achieve certain construction milestones by specified dates, (iii) the United States will have approval rights, in its sole discretion, for amendments or modifications to the agreements between Constellation and ABI, and (iv) the United States will have a right of approval, in its sole discretion, of any extension of the term of interim supply arrangements beyond three (3) years.

The Company cautions that this is only an agreement in principle between the parties and definitive agreements have not yet been finalized. The Company cannot predict whether or when definitive agreements will be finalized and executed or whether the terms of such definitive agreements, once finalized and executed, will be substantially similar to those described above or whether additional requirements will be imposed by the DOJ. Although the Company believes that the parties have an agreement in principle for the resolution of the DOJ action, litigation is inherently unpredictable. Any agreement for the resolution of the DOJ action would be subject to the approval of the Court. The description above is based on events as of April 5, 2013.

Constellation Brands Statement Regarding Discussions with DOJ

~Agreement in principle reached with DOJ; Parties request extension of the present stay of proceedings until April 23, 2013 to finalize proposed consent judgment~

VICTOR, N.Y., April 5, 2013 – Constellation Brands, Inc. (NYSE: STZ and STZ.B), Anheuser-Busch InBev (Euronext: ABI; NYSE: BUD), Grupo Modelo, S.A.B. de C.V. (BMV: GMODELOC), and Crown Imports LLC have reached an agreement in principle with the U.S. Department of Justice on a proposed resolution to the Department of Justice's litigation challenging AB InBev's proposed acquisition of the remaining stake in Grupo Modelo that it does not already own. The proposed resolution is substantially in line with the revised transaction announced on February 14, 2013.

In connection with this agreement, the parties and the Department of Justice have jointly approached the Court and requested an extension of the stay of the proceedings until April 23, 2013. This stay will allow the parties to finalize the details of a proposed consent judgment and the related definitive agreements and papers required for settlement. The parties stated in their filing with the Court that they expect for this to be their final request to extend the stay. Approval of the transaction, and the timing of such action, remain subject to the finalization of the relevant documentation with the DOJ and other parties, and approval by the Court.

The revised transaction with AB InBev remains subject to regulatory approval in Mexico.
